Pleasure Reading

I read and loved the Twilight series! Now what should I read?

1. Can you think of other authors that you have enjoyed? If so, try looking up that author in our online catalog and see what else he or she has written.
 - a. Open the online catalog and type in the author's name.
 - b. Click on "Author"
 - c. If other authors show on your list, click on a title by your author. *Note: Sometimes a title will come up under a different author. If you click the "Details" and "Catalog Record", you may find that your author is an "added author". This means the book was listed only under the first author's name but actually was co-written by yours as well.
 - d. On the left you will see the options "Find more by this author"...click this to find a list more specific to your author!
2. Are you on a vampire kick after finishing Stephenie Meyer's books? You can also use the catalog to do a subject search.
 - a. Open the online catalog and type in your chosen subject.
 - b. Click on "Subject" and see what you find!
 - c. You can also try looking under "Words or Phrase" as well as "Title".
3. Not sure on a subject or author?
 - a. Open the catalog and find a book that you have enjoyed before.
 - b. Click on "Details".
 - c. On the left you will see the options "Find more on these topics". One click and you'll find a list of books that are identified to have similar topics.
 - d. -OR- Start at the details page for your book and click on the "Catalog Record" tab.
 - e. Scroll down to where you see "Subject Term"...try these subject areas for more ideas!

4. Do you know a good book but can't find it in our catalog? Ask a librarian! If we do not have it, you can request an interlibrary loan (if the book is at least 6-8 months old) OR put in a request for purchase!
5. Don't have time to search? Then check out the following books found right here at Peabody Public Library!
 - a. Vampires for Younger Audiences
 - b. Vampires for Teens
 - c. Other Books You May Enjoy

Additional Reading Suggestions

You may recall that each book was loosely based on a different literary classic. Before or while you are rereading the series, consider reading the very books that Stephenie Meyer drew inspiration from and see if you can identify the commonalities!

Twilight --- Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen

New Moon --- Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare

Eclipse --- Wuthering Heights by Emily Brontë

Breaking Dawn --- A Midsummer Night's Dream by William Shakespeare

Stephenie also shares that Anne of Green Gables series by Lucy Maud Montgomery has been a big influence on her writing.
